III. BOTH PARTIES DECLARE:

- A. That the institutions are united by common interests and objectives in academic, scientific and cultural affairs;
- B. That these institutions are the ones which, by reason of their essence, ends and objectives are called upon to establish channels of communication that will facilitate intellectual interaction;
- C. That for the reasons above, the institutions believe it advantageous to promote their academic ties by entering into an academic, scientific and cultural Agreement of Cooperation;
- D. That, because of mutual benefits to the institutions in the advancement of research and education through the scholarly educational, scientific, technological and cultural contributions of each, it is appropriate and advantageous to the institutions to enter into this Agreement of Cooperation.

CLAUSES

- I. The objective of this Agreement of Cooperation is to increase the academic, scientific and cultural relations between UFAL and UC Davis in identified areas where there is mutual interest in establishing Working Agreements.
- II. Under this Agreement of Cooperation, cooperative work may be undertaken by subunits of the institutions. A Working Agreement between the respective subunits may be executed as an amendment to this Agreement of Cooperation, and will include:
 - A. Designation of the participating institutional subunits (e.g. Colleges, Schools, Divisions, Departments and Programs);
 - B. Designation of one or more persons in each institution who will serve as program leader(s) for the Working Agreement; and
 - C. General description of the kinds of cooperative work and activities to be undertaken.
- III. For each Working Agreement, the program leaders will be responsible for developing an annual program plan, including a description of the work and activities to be undertaken and the financial arrangements to support them. The annual program plan will require approval by the chief administrative officer of each institution or the officer's designated representative.
- IV. The financial stipulations that will apply to the exchange of academic personnel

- are as follows:

In most circumstances, the institution of origin will be responsible for the international travel costs and living expenses incurred. However, all financial arrangements relating to such matters as travel expenses, health insurance, and tuition will be addressed in Working Agreements.

- V. Access to emergency medical care for researchers, teachers and students will be based on the health care programs available at the host institution. The cost of medical/health services will be the responsibility of the visiting researchers, teachers, graduate and undergraduate students through the home institution (see IX below).
- VI. Each institution will take steps to:
 - A. Publicize the opportunities available under this Agreement of Cooperation and promote the development of cooperation;
 - B. Assist its subunits, faculty, staff and students with the administrative details of interchange; and,
 - C. Establish a review process for approval and evaluation of programs.
- VII. The institutions, under the auspices of this Agreement of Cooperation, may jointly sponsor conferences, short courses, regular courses, seminars and symposia, as well as exchange publications and other didactic and research materials.
- VIII. The present Agreement of Cooperation is for four (4) years, and it or any of its parts may be modified or terminated by written consent of both parties who will comply with the obligations that might be in effect on the date of termination.
- IX. Regularly employed personnel, while involved in this Agreement of Cooperation, remain subject to the rules and regulations of their own institution in all matters of employment, benefits, medical and life insurance, employee rights, etc.
- X. The Agreement of Cooperation does not, in and of itself, obligate either UFAL or UC Davis to any financial expenditures not explicit in the above. Such obligations, if any, will be made as part of the Working Agreements and annual program plans that may be developed under this Agreement of Cooperation. Both parties hereby agree to comply with each and every obligation contained in this document and all those that might be in effect on the date of termination of the Agreement of Cooperation.
